DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: on page 2 second paragraph, referring back to reference 1 is not proper (what is reference 1).

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. For example only, the phrase "at least one blade projected from a face thereof opposed to each other and formed with a through hole penetrated in the axial direction and a position proximate to a rotational axis center of the rotating disk and at a position of at least one section thereof in a circumferential direction" in lines 7-12 from the bottom of claim 1, render the claims indefinite because all of the particular features encompassed thereby cannot be determined. Note also phrase "a crushing operation produced in accordance with driving to rotate the blade" in lines 4-5 from bottom of claim 1.

Claims 2-3 and 10 are indefinite since all that the applicant considers to be encompassed by the entire claims cannot be determined. For example, what has been adjusted?

Claim 4 is indefinite because it is not clear what the phrase "a guide projection having a shape of guiding the powder flowing from an upstream side to a downstream side along the peripheral wall face from the peripheral wall face to an inner side" is intended to encompass.

Claim 6 is indefinite since all that the applicant considers to be encompassed by the phrase "at least one impact blade having a shape of facing a peripheral wall face disposed on an outer side in a radius direction of a disk face on a side of the discharging section thereof at the disk face on the side of the discharging section" cannot be determined.

With respect to claim 7, the last 7 lines are confusing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either JP 2003-71307 or JP 05-220375 or JP 08-60578.

The claims are interpreted as best understood by the examiner. The claims are interpreted as requiring a supply section, a crushing section including two rotating disks

(see the Figs). Either JP 2003-71307 or JP 05-220375 or JP 08-60578 is considered to clearly show a device having the structural elements of the claims that can be understood.

7. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipate by either Hopkins (2,270,946) or Kelsey (US 2002/0088882) or Rohrbach (4,087,052).

The claims are interpreted as best understood by the examiner. The claims are interpreted as requiring a supply section, a crushing section including two rotating disks (see the Figs). Either Hopkins or Kelsey or Rohrbach is considered to clearly show a device having the structural elements of the claims that can be understood.
